

PRELUDE

“Let not your hearts be troubled;
believe in God, believe also in me.
In my Father’s house are many rooms’
if it were not so, would I have told you that I go to prepare a place for you?
And when I go and prepare a place for you,
I will come again and will take you to myself,
that where I am you may be also.
And you know the way where I am going.”
Thomas said to him, “Lord, we do not know where you are going; how can we know the way?”
Jesus said to him, “I am the way, and the truth,
and the life; no one comes to the Father,
but by me.
If you had known me, you would have known my Father also; henceforth you know him and have seen him.
Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you;
not as the world gives do I give to you.
Let not your hearts be troubled,
neither let them be afraid.”

THE INEVITABLE

I like the man who faces what he must
 With step triumphant and a heart of cheer:
 Who fights the daily battle without fear:
Sees his hopes fail, yet keeps unfaltering trust
That God is God—that somehow, true and just,
 His plans work out for mortals; not a tear
 Is shed when fortune, which the world holds dear
Falls from his grasp—better, with love, a crust
Than living in dishonor; envies not Nor loses faith in man, but does his best
Nor ever murmurs at his humbler lot:
 But, with a smile and words of hope, gives zest
To every toiler. He alone is great
 Who by a life heroic conquers fate.
